The Triumph is the perfect ranch-style home for those who desire one-level living, yet still want space for the entire family. With four bedrooms and an open living area, the layout of this home takes advantage of every inch of living space. The center of the home is a large island in the kitchen, perfect for gathering and entertaining. A two-car garage is included plus many more standard features. An optional basement is also available with a full bath.

Some photos have been virtually staged to better showcase the true potential of rooms and spaces in the home.
